

AMS
AIR MERCY SERVICE

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Elihle joins the Air Mercy Service team as an Finance and Administration Intern. Having recently stepped into this role to support our financial administration, we are delighted to welcome her to the team and look forward to supporting her professional growth as she navigates this new chapter of her journey.

ELIHLE KITSI

Changing Lives. Saving Lives.

INTRO

For Elihle, the true meaning of home isn't anchored to a specific location on a map.

"The place I call home is wherever my mom is. She is my safe space and my greatest source of love, support, and encouragement. Home, for me, is defined by the people who make me feel valued and cared for."

What is the Theme Song to Your Days:

"Psalm 23 (Umusa Wakho)" by Mmuso Worship. It stands as a daily prayer and reminder of faithfulness, grace, and guidance, providing strength and perspective across all seasons.

MORE ABOUT ELIHLE

How would you describe what you do in your role to someone unfamiliar with your profession?

"I support the finance team with daily administration, transactions, and record-keeping. In short, I help keep the organisation's financial data organised, reliable, and compliant."

"Through my church, I am actively involved in community outreach initiatives that focus on bringing hope and encouragement to both children and adults."

What part of the AMS purpose connects with you most?

"Compassion and outreach. I admire how AMS extends healthcare access and support to underserved communities."

PERSPECTIVES & PURPOSE

What has been your most rewarding task or proudest moment since starting your internship?

"Successfully managing the reconciliation of day-to-day accounts and operational transactions. It showed me how much I have grown in my understanding of finance processes, and I was proud to complete the work accurately and within the required deadlines."

If you could instantly master one hidden talent overnight, what would it be?

"It would be event decorating. I enjoy creating beautiful setups for birthdays, dinners, and special occasions, and I would love to develop that skill even further."

How do you unwind
and clear your mind
after a busy week?

"I love spending time with friends catching up, sharing laughs, and enjoying each other's company at an affordable restaurant or the beach. Sundays are also very special to me because I dedicate that time to God through worship, prayer, and fellowship."

What advice would you put on a billboard for the world to see?

"LET GO AND LET GOD.
TRUST THE PROCESS,
NEVER GIVE UP ON PRAYER."
