

AMS
AIR MERCY SERVICE

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Jamie-Leigh joins the Air Mercy Service team as a Finance Intern. Having recently stepped into this role to support our financial operations, we are excited to welcome her to our team and look forward to guiding and supporting her as she starts this new chapter.

JAMIE-LEIGH THOMPSON

Changing Lives. Saving Lives.

INTRO

What does the word
"home" mean to you?

"Home is a place where I feel accepted without needing to prove my worth. It is a space of ease that keeps me connected to my loved ones and gives me a strong sense of belonging."

*What is one song that captures the energy you
bring into this chapter?*
Started From the Bottom"
by Drake. It serves as a reminder that every successful career starts somewhere, capturing the drive and energy she brings into this new chapter.

MORE ABOUT JAMIE- LEIGH

How would you describe what you do in your role to someone unfamiliar with your profession?

As finance interns, we contribute to good financial governance. Our role supports transparency, accountability, and informed decision-making by ensuring that financial information is accurate and that resources are managed responsibly.

"Being exposed to this environment made me see how financial decisions directly influence daily operations."

What are you most excited about in your role as a finance intern?

"I'm excited to build my practical skills by applying sound financial management to real-world aviation processes and learning directly from experienced operational teams."

PERSPECTIVES & PURPOSE

What part of transitioning into this new space has felt most exciting?

"Learning how finance connects to our organisation's real-world operations. Being exposed to this environment made me see how financial decisions influence daily operations, making the experience much more dynamic than I expected."

What is a creative craft, hobby, or talent you participate in outside of work?

"A hobby I participated in is Drill Marching. It requires precision, discipline, and teamwork. It has strengthened my leadership, communication, time management, and ability to work effectively as part of a team while maintaining high standards."

What is your go-to way to completely recharge your batteries?

"To clear my mind, I believe supportive relationships can help gain perspective. Spending time with friends and family, especially if the conversation isn't centred on work, and genuine connection recharges me when I'm away from the workplace."

What advice would you put on a giant billboard for the world to see?

"THE PERSON YOU ARE BECOMING IS SHAPED BY WHAT YOU DO CONSISTENTLY."

